STUDIO: East Seoul Studios (Seoul, South Korea) | Engineer: Brad Wheeler

2. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

As part of its mission to advance research in music and human performance, the Sponsor agrees to provide a professional recording grant to the Artist. This session provides the Artist with professional production of original compositions in a world-class studio environment.

Conflict of Interest Acknowledgment: The Sponsor's support is based entirely on the artistic and intellectual merit of the Artist's work. The Artist is under no obligation to the Sponsor, nor shall this sponsorship be construed as an employment or talent agency agreement.

3. SESSION DETAILS

- a) Location: East Seoul Studios, Seoul, South Korea.
- b) Duration: Two (2) four-hour blocks (8 hours total).
- c) Material: Original compositions written/arranged by the Artist.
- d) Engineer: Brad Wheeler.

4. FINANCIAL TERMS

The Sponsor shall pay 100% of costs associated with the session directly to East Seoul Studios, including studio rental, engineering, mixing, and mastering fees. The Artist bears no financial obligation. This sponsorship is provided as a non-recoupable grant under the Foundation's arts research program.

5. OWNERSHIP OF RECORDINGS

IMPORTANT: THE ARTIST RETAINS FULL OWNERSHIP OF ALL RECORDINGS

- a) Master Recording Ownership: The Artist retains full copyright ownership of all master recordings. The Sponsor makes no claim to the Artist's creative works or master recordings.
- b) Compositions: All compositions remain the sole intellectual property of the Artist. The Sponsor claims no publishing rights, songwriting credits, or royalty interests.
- c) Artist Rights: The Artist retains the unrestricted right to distribute, license, perform, publish, or exploit the recordings in any manner the Artist sees fit, without limitation or obligation to the Sponsor.

6. DELIVERABLES

- a) To the Artist: One (1) USB drive containing final mixed and mastered tracks in WAV (24-bit/48kHz minimum) and MP3 (320kbps) formats.
- b) To the Sponsor: Within forty-eight (48) hours of session completion, the Studio shall deliver to a Kauzak Foundation designated cloud storage folder (Dropbox or equivalent) the following: (i) all raw multitrack recordings from the session, (ii) individual instrument and vocal stems, (iii) the complete DAW project/session file(s) in their native format, and (iv) final mixed and mastered tracks in WAV and MP3 formats. These files are provided for archival and research purposes only. The Sponsor is prohibited from distributing, licensing, or commercially exploiting these recordings without the Artist's express written consent.

7. SESSION ACCESS AND CONDUCT

- a) Authorized Personnel Only: During active recording, mixing, or mastering sessions, access to the studio's control room and live recording room(s) shall be restricted to the Artist and the Studio's assigned engineer. No other individuals — including but not limited to band members, managers, personal guests, or outside engineers — shall be permitted in the recording areas during active sessions without the prior written consent of the Sponsor.
- b) Visitor Accommodation: Any individuals accompanying the Artist to the studio facility may wait in the Studio's common areas, lounge, or reception. The Studio shall make reasonable accommodations for such visitors outside the recording areas.

c) Creative and Technical Direction: All creative input during the session shall come directly from the Artist. All technical and engineering decisions shall be made by the Studio's assigned engineer. No third parties shall provide direction to the engineer or interfere with the session workflow. The Artist and engineer shall collaborate directly without intermediaries.

d) Rationale: This policy exists to protect the integrity of the recording, minimize distractions, ensure optimal use of the sponsored session time, and maintain the professional standards expected of a Kauzak Foundation grant-funded production.
